Eventus wins new Financial Services Client

Eventus expands into Financial Services with fast growing debit-card and banking provider

Englewood, CO (January 18th, 2010) -- Eventus Solutions Group, a leading provider of contact center and BPO solutions, recently added a financial services company to its client roster. The nation's fastest-growing debit-based banking card company is using Eventus Solutions Group to coordinate and implement a world-class environment leveraging both outsourcing and technology solutions to create a more cost-effective operating structure and improve its interaction with its customers.

Eventus Solutions Group depth and expertise in contact center management and its suite of contact center and operations technology solutions enabled a transformation of the care environment while improving the overall customer experience. The implementation of a complimenting, onshore contact center, numerous contact center disciplines and care technologies assisted with delivering improvements in AHT and customer satisfaction.

"Eventus is excited to prove its capabilities in the financial services market and helping this financial services client achieve its goals within their existing budget" said Milos Djokovic, managing partner of Eventus Solutions Group.
